DEATH OF GEN. POL

iwo thousand tuns, bour fs, itsaded with guans. The ixe that of a man of the and is officers. All red a few nights ago, and about $7000 worth of tobacco, shoer, leather, shoethread, condles and many other articles, besides $175 in State treasury notes. The policy have as yet discovered no alue to the thiever. IMPRESSED.-The passenger train on the Maton and the sick four the hospitals here. One box car was filled with Yankee prisoners destined for Andersonville. Ga. Passengers were accommodated with scate

The Florida.

CLUANISG Ur. - The bospitals and barracks are being eleared of immales, and put in readiness for the rece tion of the sick and wounded, and neisseurs.

rated his hat. GRY POLE's REWARD .- The remains of flow Polk arrived in this city this morning, and at the present writing, are lying in state as St. Luke's Chapel. Huntry do of our ottinens, male and female, and soldiery, ADVERTISEMENTS.

Personal Notice.

TO JONA-Can learn nothing of Surgeon T. M. B. Boots! Boots!

HOUSE FOR SALE!

OPERA GLASSES!

of the Army.

For Congress. CAPTAIN M. W. CLUSKEY, Vanghan's brigade, Sheatham's division, Army of Tennessee, having been called out by a lwgs number of the soldlers of the

FOR SALE .-- 1 FURNISHED HOUSE ! A SWALL, comfortable HOUSE, convenient to the hudgest part of the city, with Farniture complete, from parior to kitchen. Apply at the store of F. CORRA,

THEODORELHUILIER

For Sale.

Peachtree street

L B. DAVIS,

WANTED, TO HIRE,

Coopers Wanted. WANT two good COOPERS to make harrels good wages and constant employment Apply J. T. PORTER.

Gum Belting.

NOTICE.

THE attention of anh surolling officers and the public s called to the following paragraphs of Oircular No. Headquarters Conscript Service, Georgia, olling officers will be directed to perfecting a thorough ilitary registration of all white males, resident or and within their respective districts, who are beor claims to exemption, and should satisfactorily ex ibit under the head of "remark," the status of each, will make differnt inquiry as to persons, and caroll on eformation such as they may be satisfied are liable to arollment. Persons may be enrolled wherever found

B. H. NEWTON, Lientenant and Enrolling Officer,

- 7th District Georgia. LEROY BREWER .. T. DUGGAN .. H. L. HOPPER. L. BREWER & CO.,

Nos. 9 and 11 St. Louis Street, Mobile, Ala

ARAM & PURVIANCE. (Successors to F. Is. Johnson & Co.,) General Commission Merchants

Selma, Alabama.

Prompt attention to all consignments. WIRE FOR SALE.

THE "SOUTHERN WIRE COMPANY," MACON.
Georgia, is now prepared to supply IRON WIRE, from No. 4 to No. 15, in large or small quantities.
This Wire is equal to any made in the Confederacy or sizewhere. Address

G. W. BRUNNER, President, mys7 201.*

Manco, Ga.

OF THE PROST, 12 M./ Jan The electric quiver along the wires, 175 this time, conveyed to your city the pay-WEDNESDAY

Being but a few hundred yards from the tened to it, to gain the particulars, which perior force numerically, utterly destroying the Bate's division, they dismounted and apprenently military organization and capturing position occupied by Perguson's battery. engaged the special attention of the enemy shelled this hill furlously. When this party appeared, the enemy again move corresponding operations seem to be going cal banks; and, finally, he has no other alterna-The enemy are closing up to our lines steadily, and nothing by their nosturnal prowlings and wet weather

DOUBTFUL.—The army correspondent of the Augusta Constitutionalist, writing from the front, says "General Johnston is resirained, it seems, by orders from Richmend. The policy of none point of view, but while we are waiting here in idle suspenses. Farrant ought to be at work. Gen. Johnston ordered him up a real was and dripping—the little feathered minstrels, which we frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon frequently have to do. The thunder tones of broken throated cannon f The only inconvenience it causes us, is the disagrees attributed to "rabel emissaries."

The Picayone and Courrier Prancals were suspended. aded on every side—sustaining the brunt of the Johnston is at liberty to fight whenever he galed by the loud boom of heavy guns in the direction contest alone—to talk of "carrying the war into wants to do so, and will fight whenever he sees of Big Shanty, and ever and anon, a volley of small are: arms, informs us that the lines of the hostile armies are Africa." Do we not remember that when the contest was forced upon us, we were without an army or navy, deficient in all the material of war, and without money or standing among the from Bull run to the Rappahannock, except the contest was forced upon us, we were without an army or navy, deficient in all the material of Rappabannock bridge, which was burned by praying for us, so we will not murmur, but do our duty know our "dear folks at home," are thinking of us, and Mosby. Ho says the whole upper country is as becomes soldiers and freemen, trusting to that Being filled with deserters from Grant's army. There for success, who "sends the rain aliks upon the just and are no Yankee soldiers in either Prince Wil. she unjust." If some of our friends, who are costly ensconced in their nice, dry parlors, far in the rear, who never saw an intrenchment could be suddenly transorted to the camp of Dibrell's brigade, they would be thread on them-having not even an edeloth with advantages over us which were favorable to boats and transports taken and destroyed on which to make a mimic tent to shelter them from the Red river as follows: Guoboats Eastport, pelting rain-others having been on picket or scout. have had no chance to keep dry, if they had the means, while some are poorly shod, their feet getting wet at press, Starlight, Bella Donus, La Crosse, Cham-In addition to all this, the recent movements have pion No. 3, Champlon No. 5, John Warner, placed them eighty miles further from their homes and no time during the war, but what the enemy Thos. Hastings, City Bolle, and two other freedes and all their loved attractions and hallowed memories, (the whole brigade being Tennesseoans) with little prospect of an immediate resteration—their country overrun by lawless bandits and scourged by the anemy's merci our legious-it being declared by the leaders of our fees that it is simply a matter of mercy to suffer their mothers, wiwes, sisters, little brothers and aged parents to live, (see Sherman's letter) not to say to days since a citizen, near Marianna, Fierida, be allowed any privileges or rights. Notwithstanding caught two runsway negroes, and while on his all this, contentment, cheerfulness and calm determina-

> merit. To state that this is the regiment formerly comfrom Mr. Ould, the agent of exchange, should manded by the noble and lamented Starnes, is sufficicontribute to fill up our ranks at once, now when | our ealogy for the gallant men who compete it. It is they are needed, with a large number of trained at present detached from the brigade on provest duty

> The 8th Tennessee (Colonel Dibrell's regiment) commanded by Captain J. Leftwich, a chivalrous and daring have been delivered at City Point, Va., previous leader. It was a large regiment at first, but two years to the 1st of June, 1864, and all Confederate hard service have saddy decimated its once full runks.

live in history. The 10th Tennesses, commanded by Major John M. manded by Lieutentant Colonel A. L. Demoss, who upon the city. Forty-two shells were thrown from last report up to 6 o'clock Friday evening A schooner came in from the South Friday morning with her fisg at half-past, and commumany who love to speculate on the gessible advantages which may result; these people talk of the immense benefit which the addition of a strong mountain race will be not only to the blood of the country, but to its laboring powers over the vant uncultivated Edians of Asia Minor. The latter hope may have good foundation, but to the former we must remember that the Turk is already mote than half Circassian, through the continual mingling of that race with the Turkish on the mother's side. Another on as vigorously and uncoasingly from Q tenns-

a South Carolinian.] d to a visit from Mr. L. Vagel, one we months ago, was at Brest, in Pranter. The officials of that city and MORNI BRITTUR COTTON TRADE, manufacturing streeter, Be ed by her dispovers Is Sm: The exclused tables, compiled things. India. Indeed so velocible to board of trade returns, chose the course of the ration trads for the last six years. The pecied same for currency. Yet, co. so the correction of the commercial panis of 1857, claim for Mexico the page last year. Thus furnishing, at a glance, the The quantity of co in three searths the lat of January, 18 sons subsequent to the storal | the slooks wetwiese Sourcern States from the Pederal Union; any previous de

Gloom and sandress are depicted on the face of a guide the Spile of the South . The man and spilled and the sandress are depicted on the face of a guide the spile of the South . The man and spilled a guide the spile of the South . The man and spilled the low and the spile of the South . The man and spilled the low and the spile of the South . The man are depicted the spile of the South . The man are depicted to the spile of the South . The man are depicted to the spile of the South . The man are depicted to the spile of the South . The man are depicted to the spile of the South . The man are depicted to the spile of the South . The man are depicted to the spile of the spil of 00,000 per diam—and every naw dollar he is need frances the price of gold, merchandize and provisions, discontents the people and ignored the people and igno which meets over the depot of the Carrollton railroad company. A gentleman with a long Spanish name seems to be the president of it.

Maximilian had faster look out. The Abelition Convention is sill in session, though there seems to be no particular business before it. It is presumed they are relinedual to adjourn, as there at it remain about thirty thousand out of "that hundred thousand deliars."

ith a high hand here. I wish the graycosts would very up and drive away these offices introders from our idst." CRESCENT.

Correspondence Steintive to the Forged Naval Mepart. The Richmond Dispatch has been furnished the folowing correspondence, which passed between Scere tary Mallory and Sir Roundell Palmer, the attorney general of Great Britain, on the subject of the forget report purporting to be made by Socretary Mallory to

[Copy.]
C. S. NAVY DEPARTMENT, Elehmond, Misch 10, 1284. 5
Sir Boundell Palmer, Attorney General of Great Britain: Sin: My attention having been called to the debate all this, contentment, cheerfolness and calm determination can be seen lighting up the countenances of all.

The brigade is composed of five regiments as follows: The senior th Tennessee, commanded by Colonel W. S. McLemore, a brave and gallant officer of much merit. To state that this is the regiment formerly com-the enemiss of my country, for purposes too obvious to require explanation, I confidently appeal to your sense of justice and propriety for the correction of your mis-with great respect, I have the honor to be, your obedient servant, S. R. MALLORY, Secretary of the Navy of C. S. 6 PORTLAND PLACE, WEST LONDOS, 8 SIR : I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of r latter, dated the 10th March, which I propose, with permission of the House, to read on an early damin-

we notice, with the content of the c as to the former we must remember that the Company B-Wounded: John Jones, leg.

Company F-Wounded; solor corp A J Strickland, of shot off. ot shot off. Company I—Ellied: W. H. Mayo. Woundedroorp. Short, arm, since died; sorgt Jas Moucey, lag; Win ! Pitt, arm, st

Company K.—Wounded: Blum W Shepherd, hand and breast; G H Kay, foot, Whey Kügnre, leg, st.

Company F.—Missing: John Hay, wounded and cap-Company G-Musing: sergt M H Morrison, W E Autry, wonded and captured.

Unmpany K-Missing: corp T S Morris, L A Wood, wonded and captures.

Missing: muscless Wm Bamburg, captured. At Caravilla—Company A—Wounded: B F Mekerg. Company K-Wounded: S Brown, shoulder, sev List of Casualties In the 8th and 19 h (consolidated) Arkanasa regiments Govan's brigade, Cleburn's division from Resaca,

May 14th, to New Hope, May 27, 1964-Commanded by Colonal T. F. Baucum. Field and Staff-Killed: Adjt W H Dapay, A Fu Bik Arkansas.

Killed: L Seif. Wounded: John Rissner, slight: J. ennord, slight. gat. « C and H. Capt Ellis, commanding—Killed: pp J A Biddle, S G Grooms. Wounded: list Lieut Y Mack, severe; 21 Lieut F D Douton, slight; Corp Juo es, Frank Parrin, Wm Warren, John Hutchins, F G ndy, N Minle, E J Affair, James McDougal.

Companies C and H. 24 Lieut W W Sorrells counding— Killed: lat Serg: E Mead. Wounded: 24 Lieut J K Farguson, Corpl J W Brasher, C W Jones, J C Hull, O winkery, J. Jones. Wounded: 24 Lieut. JN Ellies, Sergi J Ed. Companies E and P. Capt Hawkins, commanding—Killed: Corpl J A Voit, S G Weight, S Sath. Wounded: Capt J S Hankins Sergi G W Milla Sergi J J Ed. Companies E and P. Capt Hawkins, commanding—Killed: Corpl J A Voit, S G Weight, S Sath. Wounded: Capt J S Hankins Sergi G W Milla Sergi J J Ed. Wands od: Capt J S Hankins Sergi G W Milla Sergi J J Ed. Wands od: Capt J S Hankins Sergi G W Milla Sergi J J Ed. Wands (Capt J S Hankins Sergi G W Milla Sergi J J Ed. Wands (Capt J S Hankins Sergi G W Milla Sergi J J Ed. Wands (Capt J S Hankins Sergi G W Milla Sergi J J Ed. Wands (Capt J S Hankins Miles R Morgan (norfally), A N Barastt, W N-lson W Holdman. Missing: N H Ward, Myrz.

"I T Kent Segi W N Jackson, Corpl J H Holt, M W Tollet, G H McKlivy, Jas McKlivy.

Recapitulation—Killed 28, wounded 75, missing 3. W. H H OYLES.

Lieut. and Acting Adjt.

Lieut. and Acting Adjt.

Lieut. and Acting Adjt.

List of Casualties in the 6th Kentucky Regiment In faniry slace May S. 1961, Col. M. H. Coffee, Command Clark, Adjutant V Hemlit, Sergeant-Major F P Randle everely. Company A. Captain C B McClusky, Commanding Compacy A. Captain C B McClonky, Our manding Killedr J D Overstree', V M. Wells. Wounded: Win Maxly, J R Nava (teo Stane (since died), J T Graeraft, N Barmes, H Taper, T D Oshurne, sev. Company B. Captain J S Sellivan, Ownmanding—Wounder: Capt J S Sellivan, Lient E J Keenan, J W Keily, Alax Wells, A Willialm, J T Clail, sev. Company G. Captain, Noah Smith, Commanding, Weinzed: St. S S Martin, R J Hinchman, R Cooper, J M Pittman, sev.

Tory Ram.—The west crops generally in this section, says the Aberdeen (Miss.) Samy Senth, promise a good yield, in consequence whereof, the price of flour has fallen from $1.75 to 50 to settlement, Hayrood county, on the night of the price of flour has fallen from $1.75 to 50 to settlement, Hayrood county, on the night of the price of flour has fallen from $1.75 to 50 to settlement, Hayrood county, on the night of the price of flour has fallen from $1.75 to 50 to settlement, Hayrood county, on the night of the Turks, and we doubt not the greatest of that among those emigrating for any kind has been been settlement, Hayrood county, on the night of the Turks, and we doubt not the greatest of that among those emigrating for any kind has been been settlement, Hayrood county, on the night of the Turks, and we doubt not the greatest of that among those emigrating for any kind has been been settlement, Hayrood county, on the night of the Turks, and we doubt not the greatest of the target several fine books to the hardy mountaineer, who may, pering their assemble to the target several fine books to the hardy mountaineer, who may need the target several fine books to the hardy mountaineer, who may need to form. It was remarkable, strikingly appearent, that from California, Thempsen Campbell chairman.

Torry Ram.—We can study to sum the day because the day because the form. It was remarkable, strikingly appearent, that from California, Thempsen Campbell chairman.

The propose of flour wast, from a first form of the day because the form. It was remarkable, strikingly appearent, that from California, Thempsen Campbell chairman.

The propose of flour wast, remarkable, strikingly appearent, that from California, Thempsen Campbell chairman.

The propose of flour wast, remarkable, strikingly appearent, that from California, Thempsen Campbell chairman.

The propose of flour wast, remarkable, strikingly appearent, the form of the form

OFFICIAL DISPATCH PROUMAJOR GENERAL PORREST. The Great Victory at Guntawn. [We have been furnished, from General Wright's dispatch from General Forrest : GUNTOWN, MISS., June 14, via MOSILE, 14,-Te Hon., Isham G. Hurris: I met the enemy under Gong, Stewart and Gristson, ten thousand strong-soventy-five hundred infentry, and twenty-five hunfred cavalry, and twenty pisces of artillery-on the 10th lestant, with four thousand cavalry and eighteen places of artillery After a hand to hand fight for all hours, I completely

My loss was 150 killed and the wounded. Among the killed were many valuable efficers. The enemy's losses were 1,500 killed, 2,000 prisoners, 250 wagons and ambulances, and all their artiflery and ordonore stores. We are still following and killing many in the woods. Their fore cannot be less than five Buford, Bell and Ligna distinguished themselves, all the officers and men did on this occasion N. BEDPORD FORREST, Mai Gam. THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

distributed among the r. The other half is General Grant Reported Invisible. RICHNOND, June 14.—Gur envalre vesterday evening gave back some two miles above Riddel's shop, towards

R. E. LEE General From the North-The Gold Market. RICHMOND, June 13.—The Washington Telegraph of the 19th has been received. On the 11th gold is quoted, at the first heard, at one hundred and ninety-nine as Morgan is reported leaving Kantucky by nearly the mass rouse as he entered the State.

The other news 1: unimportant

Late Texas Stems. The Austin (Texas) State Guartte thus announces the micide of Judge Whester: where pained to learn, on our way up from House tan, that Judge R. T. Wheeler had committed suicide on Friday last, at the residence of John Metcalf, Haq, in Wachington county, whethe he and his family had been staying for some manths past. It is well known that Judge W. has been labering for some time under a severa depression of spirits, and occasionally had exhibited symptoms of aberration of mind, but those who have conversed with him lately, all state that he appeared perfectly same, and conversed frestly minon current top its. On Friday last, after he had partaken of dinner with his femily, he returned to the parlor alone, where Mr. Mchalf, Jr., who had just nome in had carelessly thrown down his platel. In a few moments a report was beard, and on an ering the room, Judge Wheeler was found sitting in a charl, his hand leathing to one side.

From Eagle Pass We have conversed, says the Galveston Naws of the 18th, with a friend from dags Fass, which place to lef on Montay week. A much better feeling now exis-on the part of the Maxicans and their authorities to

Companies E and I. Capt W m N Bass, Sgt T B admonds. W H
Gadd, J P Jones, C Hawkins, W M M rison. Woundsit Sgt J J N-bloch, Corp T A Henderson Corp R J
Obar, N A Horne, R N-bloc, R Q Jones, B Floyd, W C
Gill, mortally, E J Mitchell, N O Mandin, C Wallace, H Gills.

Companies P and G, Capt W P Witt commanding—
Wounded: Ist Sergt B R Goodmin, Sergt B F C Young,
J T Stavens, L D Vaughan, T C Mason, R F Deyden, W M Powler, A Whittiels, J A Hearly, Joseph Keener (since died), J M Cyput (since died), B W Emp (since died).

19th Arkunsus.

Companies A and B, Captain Stawart commanding—
Killed: M Lieutenant C Les, Q N-leon, H J Summars.
Weended: G W Green, mortally, W A Boyd, J New gent, J A McLaughlin, J M Huffness, W H Wingdeld.
Companies C and H, 2d Lieut W W Sortells comdg-

produce merchant, and some years since retired from business. He had an only deughter, named Belia, who was the pride and hope of her found parents. Some three years and a half ago, or a little praceding the outbreak of the rebelliers, Belia was an a visit to reliatives in Georgia, and became acquismited with a chrustife and of the sunny South named Robert Smith. Robert was in his prime, and Belia was Impressible, young and lovely.

nce through the rebel mail, which was the New York merana manufacture to day entertaining vs.

The President has been busy to day entertaining vs.

The President has been busy to day entertaining vs. The President has been busy to day entertaining va-riant delegations to the Baltimore convention. His an-acdotal powers were in complete order and has fer-nished to his numerous visitors enough finning stories during the day to make the convention marry for a week. Among the delegations formally received were that from Louisiana, Cuthbert Builtt, chairman, and that from California, Thompson Campbell chairman Washington is already convided with delegation has

on the freight train,

MOT WOUSDED.-We are pleased to learn that Maj Q. W. Lee was not wounded, although the ball perfovisited the Chapel to drop a tear to his memory. His emulos will be eccurted to Ashaville, N. C., leaving at Il o'eleck this afternoon.

FOR SALE-Calf and Cavalry Scots—at rotall by L. B. DAVIS, jui5 lw Poschiree street.

A NIGE. NEW HOUSE, containing four rooms good halls, double kitchen ster, situated on Caloun street, fronting the Pemale Cellege. Icquire o

Attention Signal Corps and Officers

11th Congressional District of Toppesses, is a candidate to fill the vacancy in the pretent Congress oceasloped by the death of the Hon, David M. Currin, Opposite the Athene told St Clenfederapy copy.

From Geneva, Switzerland, IS requested to make his address and whereshould known to ISAAC SCOTE, L'OURPENSY.

Pwentypenny NAILS. 1013 Tw Peachines street For Rent. ROOMS to rest. Apply to

Vinegar. L B. DAVIS,

100 COPPER FEURS 4 fine long 12 inches in di-amater, inside—10 lbs. each. Apply to J.T. PORTER, Commission Merchant, Marietta atreet.

oth, or for the balance of the year, a

A SMALL lot of 8, 2 and 10 feet 4 ply BELTING A. G. SPEARS, Hope Paper Mills. just 74 BEADQUARTERS COR. 7TH CONG. DIST. GROREIA Griffig, June 7th, 1964.

It is of the utmost importance that this registration the ulf be completed as early as pussible. Primpt acon is enjoined upon sub-enrolling offleers, and eltisees are requested to report to the enrolling officers

General Commission Merchants

.... D. R. PURVIANCE

THE "SOUTHERN WIRE COMPANY," M

ATLANTA; GA.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 15, 1864.

Parties who left Mariette at midnight last night, report nothing new or startling having on upon our side, to meet him.

yows of vengeance have been registered.

The manifesto adopted by the Confederate Congress on Friday night last, declaring that collapse. nothing was more ardently desired by the people of the South than peace, and that we have conspatains our article of last week on the same subject. The Congress declared in their manifeste that the series of successes with which i has pleased Omnipotence to bless our arms since the opening of the present campaign, enables them to profess a desire for peace in behalf of the interests of civilization and humanity, without subjecting their motives to misinterprets tion. Acting strictly on the defensive, all we mak is the undisturbed enjoyment of those rights not our desire to interfers with the peace and prosperity of any of the States arrayed against us. The responsibility of prolonging the war desire peace, we cannot purchase it at the cost of our hosior or liberty. Paper campaigns are better laid than carried out. It sounds finaly to talk of our victorious Africa." Do we not remember that when the a good opportunity. numbers, with a strong army, a large and formidable navy, an abundant supply of ammunition and arms, with numerous workshops and factories filled with artisans, unobstructed and free intercourse with foreign powers, who were onlisted in their favor by their abelition principles a full treasury, and a high status among the their complete success. For over three years, we have met their re- Chillicothe, Covington, Signal, Granite City, peated attacks, sometimes sustaining a defeat Wave; transports Woodford, Ohio Belle, Emwhen overpowered by numbers, but always successful on a fair and open field. There has been if numbers could have effected it. "the moral forces of an army are superior to destroyed. the payment, in the ratio of ten to one." XERKES, with his millions, although marching with all the gandy paraphernalia of war, with gold-tipped pikes and costly equipage, was defeated by the hardy sons of the clime he was invading. Silken banners dancing in gay dalliance with the breeze, and "all the pomp and circumstance of war," magnificent appointments and huge array, do not constitute success. A people coured to hardships, living upon retreating before large numbers, and giving battle when occasion warrants, are invincible. The moral forces of such a people will never yet his soul will quarke with fear at the sight of a man, though only armed with a stick. It is the Will, the Determination, the Morai Courage, that makes the Hero. Virtue cannot dwell with clared exchanged by exchange by exchange on the second for the exchange of the second for the second slaves, nor reign over those who cower to take bered six, soven and eight. This notice enght whenever they are turned loose. Col. Biffle is the severant, to bring many thousands into the ranks without wal of chivalry—"allon in battle; in tranquility, a Entract from the report of the comes a sound philosophy that exchews all ex- delay. ultant feelings and vain glory in success, and all despendency and gloom in defeat. Victo-

a provost guard of the invalid corps—or, as the citizens call them, "condemned Yankees."

There is no pickets this side of Alexandria, be—price, at least not content and provided and provided and provided the invalid course of the invalid cou There is no pickets this side of Alexandria, be-yand Cameron run—four miles from the town. 1 Chors.—The wheat crops generally in this of superior quality. We can furnish you in large

A GLOSIOUS RESULT. The reports of the late operations of General FORREST, in North Mississippi, grow better as they reach us mere in detail, and it is no longer a matter of doubt but that his late success is one of the death of Lieux Gen. Leonidan of the most brilliant that has yet attended his killed by a shell from the enemy about the career. The odds against his little command was, it will be seen, a great one; but nothing simple. Gens Johnston Hardes, Polk, J daunted the work was undertaken, with the result before us-a handful of brave and detait officers, were riding around viewing our mined men have fought and routed a greatly sti- ing to a high point on Pice mo more than their original number. Cannot the example be followed on larger fields? Who two, and, as I mentioned in my last, that shall say not until the effort is made? YANKEE FINANCES.-Gold in New York has fire. After remaining a few minutes they all occurred up to that hour. Slow cannonading almost reached two for one, notwithelanding the learnest for their house, except Gen. Polk. was heard in this city this morning, the nature of which we have no intelligence. We are under the impression that Sherman, should the weather permit, will again renew his maneuvering policy. During the heavy maneuvering pointy. During the heavy rains his columns seem to have been coroparatively quiet, but our impression is that taking advantage of the change in the last two days, he has again attempted a flank movement—this time on our right and in the direct promises to pay aftent; he cannot borrow a doition of Roswell. In anticipation of such a lar in Europe; he has hopelessly ruined the local banks; and, finally, he has no other alterna-tive but to issue more paper money to pay the rolem and chivalry. The death of Gen. Polk is said to have cast expenses of his Government-upwards of $2,a deep gloom over the army, and thousands of 000,000 per dism-and every new dollar he is- feeling the advanced position of Bate in the centre, and

THE SUPERIORITY OF MCRAL his credit further. If Grant and Sherman are ducted the war strictly on the defensive, fully Within the past few months over $70,000 have bequesthed us by a common ancestry and guar- Col. W. C. Hodges, of the 17th Georgia, is anteed to us by the old Federal compact. It is rapidly healing, though he still suffers pain.

rests upon our edversaries. While we ardently ent mouth has been postponed to the 10th July. She has given a hall of $100,000 for her aparmies marching through the enemy's territory Augusta Constitutionalist, writing from the and inflicting upon them the horrors of war-of front, says "General Johnston is restrained, it quently mingle with the subline roll of Heavan's artiour banners fleating in triumph over their prin- seems, by orders from Richmond. The policy lery, and the lightning's larid giare dies in the darkness cipal cities, and the banks of the Ohio and Hud- is to fight one battle at a time. This is very of night, to be lumediately mimicked by the red Hash cipal cities, and the banks of the Ohio and Hudson is to fight one battle at a time. This is very son resonant with the bramp of our armed legood in one point of view, but while we are ed by man. Even as I write, the rain is pattering down gions. But we never proposed an aggressive waiting here in idle suspense, Ferrest ought to war. The war was waged upon us and we had be at work. Gen. Johnston ordered him up a are at wes and dripping—the little feathered minstrels, to meet the attacks of our foe. It appears al. month ago, but Gen. Bragg-who knows every. that greated us with their songs of welcome, this mornmost ridiculous for an invaded country-block- thing-ordered him back." Our opinion is Gon. ing at dawn of day, have ceased their gentle symphoaded on every side—sustaining the brunt of the Johnston is at liberty to fight whenever he liam, Fauquier, Culpeper or Stafford. Manassas has been entirely evacuated. THE FEDERAL PLEET IN RED RIVER .- The most powerful nations of the world, possessed Shreveport News enumerates the Federal gun-could have crushed us by his superior numbers, transports since the Sth of May, names unknown. In addittion to these two other gun-A celebrated writer states as an axiom that boats and a small transport were reported to be

way to commit them to jail, was inhumanly and tion can be seen lighting up the countenances of all. mercilessly murdered by them. EXCHANGED PRISONERS.—The last notice scanty supplies, sleeping upon mother earth, voterans. It is dated June 7th, and gives no near Atlanta. tice to all Confederate officers and men who yield to the physical powers of a fee. Lot a officers and men, and all civilians who have Many of its members are whiling their existence away coward still. Give him every weapon, and yet his soul will quake with fear at the sight of exchanged. This, however, is not later 12.2 . The yet I vanerses, communied by Col. J. B. Biffle, and Take, as he is sometimes familiarly called, is a MORILE MARKET.-The Tribuse, of the 19th, rice fall to clate, or disaster to appall. Ac. reports business generally dull. But few sales nor, a brave and frue soldier. This regiment was comcepting the situation in its true character, the are being made, and what trade is doing is only